3 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
4 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

5 LV GAMING VENTURES, LLC,

6 Plaintiff,

7 v.

8 THE M RESORT PHUKET, an unknown
9 entity doing business in Thailand; and
10 INFINITY ONLINE SOLUTIONS CO., LTD.,
an unknown entity doing business in Phuket,
Thailand,

11 Defendants.

2:11-cv-01552-LDG-VCF

ORDER

13 Plaintiff LV Gaming Ventures, LLC filed this action against The M Resort Phuket and 14 Infinity Online Solutions Co., Ltd. alleging that Defendants have unlawfully misappropriated
15 Plaintiff's name, logos, and other marks for Internet advertising purposes. (#1). Defendants also 16 incorporate "mresort" into their website domain name. Plaintiff has now filed a motion to file
17 under seal (#2) and an ex parte motion for a temporary restraining order (#3).

18 Plaintiff requests that the court allow it to temporarily file pleadings and motions under 19 seal. Plaintiff requests that this action proceed under seal until either Plaintiff serves Defendants
20 with an order granting Plaintiff's ex parte relief for temporary restraining order or this court denies
21 such relief. Plaintiff seeks this relief based on its fear that, if given notice, Defendants would alter
22 the websites or transfer the allegedly infringing domain name prior to resolution of the issues.
23 Plaintiff has demonstrated "compelling reasons" for its temporally limited relief. See Kamakana v.
24 City of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1178-79 (9th Cir. 2006). Accordingly,

25 THE COURT HEREBY ORDERS that Plaintiff's motion to temporarily file under seal
26 (#2) is GRANTED. The filings of this case shall remain under seal until Plaintiff provides notice

1 pursuant to Rule 65. Plaintiff shall take immediate action to effectuate such notice and quickly
2 apprise the court of any such efforts.
